

AMERICAN DIVISION OF GERMAN BORN IN FIGHT

TEUTONS RETIRE BEFORE BRITISH

Field Marshal Haig's Forces Strike Another Blow in the Lys Salient.

HEAVY GUNS ROARING

Germans and French Are Engaged in Violent Artillery Duel South of Roye—Americans Advance in Lorraine.

London, Aug. 19.—The famous Lys salient in the region west of Arras is gradually giving way under British pressure.

Again Field Marshal Haig's forces have compelled the enemy to seek ground to the eastward where he will be more secure from the shells of the big guns that for several weeks have been firing criss-cross over the entire salient, working havoc among the defenders of the insecure line.

Likewise the Germans are being given no rest by the Franco-British forces north and south of the Somme, and the French and Americans along the Vesle and the Americans in Lorraine also are harassing them by artillery fire and local attacks. Nowhere has the enemy had the better of any encounter.

Germans Forced Back.

Over a front of four miles between Bailleul and Vieux Berquin on the Lys sector, the British have forced back the Germans to a depth ranging from 1,000 to 2,000 yards, taking in the maneuver the village of Outtersteun and 400 prisoners. A little to the south along the Lys river near Merville the British also have advanced their line, and still farther south, between Arras and Albert, the Germans have been relieved under pressure of further terrain near Bucquoy.

While as a whole the German line between the Somme and the Oise rivers is still holding, notwithstanding the terrific pounding it is receiving from the Allied guns, the British have drawn nearer the road leading from Chaulnes to Roye between Chilly and Fransart, placing Roye in greater jeopardy by attack from the north.

At the same time to the south of Roye, over the four-mile front between Beuvraignes and Canny-sur-Matz, a violent artillery duel is raging between the French and Germans. It is in this region that the French are endeavoring—and in their initial efforts they have met with considerable success—to carry forward their two-fold purpose of outflanking both Noye and Lassigny by a drive eastward from Roye to Noyon.

Give Two Shells for One.

Along the Vesle river front, where the Americans and French are holding the line against the Germans, there has been considerable reciprocal artillery shelling, but with the weight of gun power and of shells resting with the Allied troops. They gave the enemy two shells for one.

In Lorraine, where the Americans captured the village of Frapelle, near St. Die, Saturday morning, they have pressed on and gained more ground, notwithstanding a heavy bombardment by the enemy.

The men were in excellent spirits and crowded the rails and rigging, cheering and being cheered by the men of the Allied warships in the harbor.

The crowds on the waterfront appeared amazed at the noisy entry of the Americans, as compared with that of their less demonstrative allies. Groups of Czechs about the docks were vociferous in their welcome of the Americans, who will be kept aboard ship until the arrival of other transports, due tomorrow.

BOMB CALAIS AND HAVRE

Two consecutive raids on Verdun caused only material damage.

Several warnings were given at Dunkirk and Calais during the period. At Calais some 50 heavy bombs were dropped on Friday night.

The little "whippet" tank used by the British has been one of the factors in keeping the Germans on the run in General Foch's continuous drive. The tank can move over ground more rapidly than the larger one first introduced in the war.

JURY CONVICTS
I. W. W. LEADERS

One Hundred Men Found Guilty of Conspiracy to Hamper War Program.

TRIAL BEGAN APRIL 1

Maximum Penalty of Twenty-seven
Years in Prison and $10,000 Fine
Each Is Faced by Defendants in Federal Court.

Chicago, Aug. 19.—The jury in federal court, after one hour's deliberation, found 100 leaders of the Industrial Workers of the World "guilty as charged in the indictment" at their trial for conspiracy to disrupt the nation's war program.
The defendants, including William
D. (Big Bill) Haywood, general secretary-treasurer of the I. W. W., the highest position in the organization, face a maximum penalty of 27 years in prison and a $10,000 fine each.
Federal Judge K. M. Landis, in his charge to the jury, withdrew the fifth and last count of the indictment which charged conspiracy to violate the postal laws, and particularly that section excluding from the mails enterprises in the nature of schemes to defraud.
Espionage Act Violated.
The remaining four counts of the indictment specifically charge violation of the espionage act, the section of the criminal code prohibiting interference with the civil rights of citizens, the selective service act and the conspiracy statute.
The case has been before the court for 138 days.
There was no sign of the disorder which had been predicted among the defendants in case of an unfavorable verdict. They sat as if stunned. Haywood continued calmly to break into bits a toothpick which he held in his fingers while the verdict was read, and scarcely a man moved for several seconds after the final words were pronounced.
The I. W. W. trial began April 1, and was one of the longest criminal cases on record in this country. The record contains 30,000 typewritten pages or 7,500,000 words.

FEDERAL BANKS PROSPEROUS
Total Resources Have More Than Doubled Within Year.
Washington, Aug. 19.—Rapid growth of the strength of the 12 Federal Reserve banks within the last year under war conditions was shown by comparison of resources and liabilities reported at the close of business Aug. 16, with similar reports made Aug. 17, 1917.
Total resources in the year more than doubled, amounting to $2,048,442-
000 then and to $4,242,384,000 now.
This increase was caused principally by the tremendous expansion of the banks' discount business, which may be measured from the reports of only $299,000,000 bills on hand a year ago as compared with $1,457,000,000 now.
Gold reserves in the year jumped from $1,374,000,000 to $1,932,000,000.

Sending Funds
Away

IN the dead letter office at Washington a force of clerks is engaged opening letters, which for various reasons, mainly improper or careless addressing, fail to reach their intended destination.
Q Thousands of letters are opened which contain currency, the ownership of which it is impossible to trace.
Q But when bank drafts are found, their restoration is quite easy.
Q There are various ways of safely transmitting funds through the mails, but business houses prefer the Bank Draft. Post-office and express orders do not admit of many endorsements, and the exchange on them costs the sender more than when a bank draft is purchased.
Q Should a bank draft become lost a duplicate is issued on application and payment on original

Ice Cream Social

There will be an ice cream social given on Friday evening, Aug. 23, by the Ladies Aid of the Swedish Bethany church on the church lawn.

Olson-Jacobson

Miss Lena Olson and William E. Jacobson were married Saturday evening at 8:30 at the parsonage of the Bethlehem Lutheran church, the pastor, Rev. M. L. Hostager officiating, and using the ring service of the Lutheran church.

The bride was attired in crepe de chine and carried a bouquet of bridal roses. The bridesmaid was Miss Anna Torgerson of Deerwood who wore grey silk and carried a bouquet of sweet peas. The best man was John Olson, a brother of the bride.

The bride's parents live in Deerwood. The bridegroom is a blacksmith employed at the Northern Pacific railway shops and is well liked by his associates. They left on a wedding tour to Washington where they will visit a sister of the bride. They will be at home Sept. 15 at 1807 Oak street, Brainerd.

AT THE BEST

Theda Bara in Her Most Seductive Role—Cleopatra, the Climax of the Siren Star

Ciad in robes of regal richness, seated in the midst of canopied estate, clasping to her bosom a twining asp, Egypt's greatest Queen, Cleopatra, the last of the Ptolemys, expired.

This is what Theda Bara did for "Cleopatra," the Fox wonder film, and it is but one of a number of features of similar calibre in which this famous screen actress is starred. "Cleopatra" is the greatest and most suitable character for the display of the talents of this rare star.

Never in her life has Miss Bara entered so earnestly into a characterization as she has into "Cleopatra." Not content with a mere casual and superficial study of the character, Miss Bara has delved into all the historical records at her command, in regard to the savagely-imperious, magically-alluring Queen, about whom controversy has raged during all the centuries since she lived.

Prior to coming to California, Miss Bara made a detailed personal study of the wonderful Egyptian exhibit in the Museum of Art in New York City. Here is, perhaps, the greatest collection of the kind in the world, and the Fox star lost no opportunity to thoroughly imbue herself with the atmosphere of the past, which the strange carvings, the mummies, and the hieroglyphics suggest. Miss Bara, by thorough study, has succeeded in resurrecting many forgotten and obscure traits of character of the famous Queen, and portrays them upon the screen with a vividness and intensity that has never before been expressed even by the famous vampire herself.

One of the striking features of the making of "Cleopatra" is the remarkable costumes. A positively startling bit of garb is a peacock dress, in the making of which a whole peacock was used. This is only one of the gorgeous and expensive costumes Miss Bara wears in the picture. At the Best tonight and tomorrow.

Husband and Wife

Mrs. Frank P. Wood, Box 18, R. F. D. 2, Morrill, Me., writes: "Foley Kidney Pills help me so much. My husband also has received much benefit from them. He was so lame he could not stoop over and now he feels no pain." Lame back, sore muscles, stiff joints, rheumatic aches and pains quickly conquered by Foley Kidney Pills. H. P. Dunn, druggist, mwf Establish Gene Libraries.

Certain of the medical schools of the American universities have "lending libraries" in which books take the place of books on the shelves, and are let out on exactly the same system as in a circulating library. The student, on paying the required fee, may borrow any book in the collection, and, by renewing the loan every week, keep it for a month. Some of the libraries are valued as highly as $25,000. A complete skeleton is worth from $30 to $100, according to its condition. A skull brings from $2.50 to $5, and a perfect specimen as much as $50. Leg, arm and collar bones command a ready market.

Caught Cold at Palm Beach

Southern climate is no protection against summer colds. Helen R. Saunders, 626 2nd Ave., W. Palm Beach, Fla., writes: "My severe cold on the chest was relieved by Foley's Honey and Tar Compound." This fine old family remedy can be depended upon to relieve summer colds, hay fever, asthma and croup. H. P. Dunn, druggist, mwf

IDEAL FOR MORNING WEAR

Could anything be more stunning for the morning jaunt than this blouse of cafe au lait crepe de chine and black satin skirt? The lines of the blouse and its hand-painted design lift it far out of the ordinary.

DRAPERIES FOR WORN HATS

Georgette Crepe, Net, Chiffon and Other Materials Aid Women in Making Transformations.

Never was it so easy for the ordinary woman not gifted with very much millinery skill to freshen up a hat that is beginning to show wear as at the present moment, says a fashion writer in New York Herald. This new fashion of draping hats with georgette crepe, net, chiffon, etc., makes it possible for even a woman rather lacking in skill to achieve good results in adjusting a trimming that will completely refurbish a hat that has served for part of the summer. Georgette crepe draped around the crown and over the top will be all that is necessary very often, or a more picturesque hat may have a net ruche placed directly on the brim and encircling the crown.

A small toque shape may be very easily covered entirely with some one of these diaphanous materials, which can be held in close to the crown with a wreath of tiny flowers or a band of ribbon. Again a straight organdie ribbon or one of georgette or net may be draped around the crown and made in a bow at the side.

The plaited nets, georgettes and organdie ruchings are also useful for covering hat brims that are soiled or shabby. The plaiting may stand up around the crown and lie flat on the brim. The adjustment of these trimmings takes very little time and will often solve the problem of making one's summer millinery hold out until one really wants a fall hat.

FROM FASHION'S NOTE BOOK

Unusual and striking is this afternoon suit model of black and white satin charmeuse.

SWEATER IS FAWN COLORED

Latest Style Home-Knitted Garment for Fall Is Both Sensible and Inexpensive.

Each season develops its exclusive sweater style, and the smart summer sweater this year is a fawn-colored affair with graceful lines and a crossed belt instead of a sash. The belt, which is very wide, matches the sweater in color and is knitted on small needles so that its weave is firm and strong. The end of the belt passes through a slit in the other end, and both ends fasten back neatly against the belt with loops over pearl buttons. The hand trimming down the front and around the neck, also made on the small needles, turns back against the sweater to form a narrow collar and revers.

The tops of the pockets turn down in the same way and are caught with loops and pearl buttons. The body of the fawn-colored sweater is of fine shetland wool in a rather loose stitch, the closely-knitted trimmings giving an effective touch of contrast. Such a sweater must be made slightly wider than usual in the fronts, to allow for the turning back of the edges in rever fashion.

The woman who feels she owes one really good sweater to herself, after all she has made for the soldiers, is putting her extra time into a really good knitted coat which will be warm enough for autumn and winter wear. She will study the stunning sweaters sold for men's wear by the sporting goods houses and pattern her autumn jacket accordingly. Knitting one way and purling back produces a very close, compact stitch which is exceedingly durable. It takes longer to knit a sweater this way but the result pays. The sleeves should be made separately and sewed in. The collar may be rolled over silk like the collar on a man's sweater, or the plain edge band that gives a V-neck opening may be used.

NEW RAFFIA KNITTING BAGS

Once Popular Material Is Given Life in Very Attractive and Popular Designs.

Have you made a raffia knitting bag? You remember, we all used to do raffia work? Then, after the novelty of making our own pretty baskets—and some of them were very attractive—had worn off, we forgot all about raffia work, according to a correspondent.

Somewhere, however, did not forget, and now some of the smart shops show knitting bags made of raffia, in very good colors and designs. The bags are first of all commodious and shapely. They are fitted with a fairly wide handle to hang over the arm. They are made of raffia in different harmonizing colors, worked into a foundation of white; that is to say, of light straw color, the usual uncolored raffia color.

One of the bags is of a dull yellowish green and a soft glowing orange worked in with the straw color. Another is of blue and black and bright yellow, plentifully intermixed, of course, with the white or natural color. The bags can be made with silk linings, or without any linings at all.

Red Cross "Pretend" Costume.

For the little girl who loves to "pretend," a welcome gift would be a set of Red Cross nurse's clothes, consisting of a big apron (big for a little girl, although in reality quite small), a Red Cross veil, and a big bag on which there is, in red calico, a big red cross applied. This would serve well for the play costume for a nurse or for the play costume for mamma away at work at Red Cross rooms.

New Ideas.

Wearing bright colors is a war time duty. Dyes, remember, are a by-product of coal tar, which is used in the manufacture of munitions. Nor do not underrate the psychological effect of cheerful colors.

PARAGON OF DOGS

Steamboat Captain's Pet Was in Class by Itself.

One Performance, However, Brought Argument Whether He Was Wisest of His Kind or Plain Canine Fool.

The bulldog of the Esmeralda, packet freighter for the settlements between Portland and Machias, in intelligence and accomplishments, is reckoned a paragon of dogs. In Portland he walks uptown with the captain and returns alone with any purchases and newspapers which may be entrusted to him. He even brings back meat, and this quota of self-restraint puts him in a class by himself. Holman Day writes in Harper's Magazine.

One day, according to legend, this dog was actor in an affair which has been debated warmly ever since; it gives rise to the argument whether the dog is the wisest of his generation or just a plain canine fool. There is no middle ground among the disputants along the water front. The event itself was sufficiently grotesque to merit mention.

The captain decided to test the dog's intelligence as a shopper. Therefore he put a coin into a basket which he hitched to the animal's collar, and then rapped his knuckles on an outspread newspaper, getting the dog's undivided attention. Lastly, he pointed up the wharf and told the dog to "Git!" Fido obeyed with alacrity and went up the wharf's roadway in a cloud of dust.

At the head of the long wharf there was a bold terrace of a little park whose Irish caretaker had turned out to graze his pair of pet goats, hitched together with a short leash. The dog dashed up the terrace and overtook the frightened goats, setting his jaws on the leather leash with his best grip. The goats leaped from the embankment, carrying the dog with them, and landed on a fruit peddler's dozing horse, a goat on each side, like saddle-bags; the leash held, and so did the bulldog. Down the wharf went the outfit, and the terrified horse did not pause when he reached the end; he leaped over the rail of the Esmeralda and went flat on deck in a tangle of harness, goats and dog.

After matters had been set right, including pay to the fruit merchant and apologies to the goat owner, the captain took Fido to one side and disparaged his intelligence, rapping his knuckles once more on the newspaper and informing the canine shopper that he had not been sent for goats or bananas.

"Just a minute, sir!" broke in the cook, who was listening. "Do you notice what you have been rapping your hand on?"

The captain looked at the sheet. It carried a big advertisement of hook beer with a goat rampant in the middle of it.

Helmets Save Soldiers' Lives.

A British medical correspondent commenting upon some recent French statistics, says: "Out of 55 cases of head injury it was found, for example, that 42 occurred in soldiers who wore no helmets. Among the 42 there were 23 fractured skulls. The remaining 19 cases suffered from severe scalp wounds. Among the 13 cases which wore helmets there was not a single fracture of the skull; eight showed some concussion effects, and five had slight wounds. A considerable number of the unprotected cases died; none of the protected died. The most significant fact which has emerged since the helmet was introduced was emphasized by Doctor Roussy at the Academy of Medicine last year. He said that the percentage of cases showing wounds in the head had increased. The reason was, of course, that the number of sudden deaths from the cause had markedly decreased."

Good Year for Doctors.

"This is certainly a great year for doctors," remarked an interne, according to a New York correspondent. "Only a few years ago there were so many M. D.'s with their shingle out here that some of them had to take up other business to keep the wolf from the door. But now there is a dearth of these professional men. In fact, they are so scarce that almost every day editorials or advertisements are printed calling for '10,000 doctors for the French army' or '15,000 doctors wanted on the British battle front.' The figures are growing all the time, and very soon it is likely, unless Russia recovers quickly from her political and social delirium tremens, we shall receive a demand for 50,000 alienists for the Russian revolution. It is a great pity governments don't really appreciate what a doctor's life is worth over there."

Scientist's War Service.

Dr. Alexis Carrel, one of the greatest of living surgeons, head of the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research and winner of the Nobel prize for science in 1912, is forty-four years old. Doctor Carrel, who is a native of France, is now wearing the "horizon blue" field uniform of a French lieutenant, having been sent by the Rockefeller Institute to the front at the outbreak of the war to conduct an extensive inquiry into modern war surgery. For his invaluable services to the French wounded, the French government has bestowed upon him the cross of the Legion of Honor. Doctor Carrel looks upon America as his real home, and after the war will return to New York to resume direction of the Rockefeller Institute.

CAN SEE THE END

The spectacle of King Ferdinand of Bulgaria sitting at a rest cure and shedding tears indicates that he does not view the recent German rout as being much of a victory.

As an antidote for his blue state of mind Emperor William has sent him a nerve specialist.

After the Yank attack at Chateau Thierry and all along the line it appears that the whole Hun army needs nerve specialists. They are losing their morale.

Ferdinand is probably wondering what will be left of his robber kingdom and his partner in crime, William, when the allied peace council takes toll of atrocities committed.

The Mittel Europa scheme is beginning to crack at Constantinople, in Bulgaria, in Russia, on the West front and the neutrals about Germany, first cowed by superior forces, will soon begin to show their teeth. No nation can sit by complacently while its seamen are shot down and its vessels are sunk.

ANTIBELLYACHE CLUB

This new Antibellyache club is gaining membership rapidly and it is believed quite a few in Brainerd and Crow Wing county are eligible for membership. The membership card reads:

Membership privileges in this society include "no dues, no offices, no annual banquet," and its object is "to discourage war-time bellyaching."

Sentiments to which you subscribe:

I avow the belief:

That even I could not run this war and please everybody.

That war must necessarily interfere with some peaceful occupations and pursuits.

That all men should help as much as possible, and complain as little as possible—that they should "can the bellyache."

Wherefore:

I hereby join the Antibellyache Society, and thus becoming an A-B (Antibellyacher), I pledge myself to train (so far as possible) from and to discourage bellyaching for the term of the war; to get new members when ever possible; to impose on myself a fine, payable to the American Red Cross, for each bellyache of which I may be guilty.

BRAINERD LAGS BEHIND

Both Crosby and Ironton have their municipal wood yards as authorized by order of the State Public Safety Commission. Ironton quickly secured a section of state land stumpage and has choppers at work.

True, both towns protested at being reduced to a pure wood fuel diet this winter and were allowed some coal. But that did not deter them from getting all the wood they can and the municipal fuel yards are doing good business.

Brainerd made a protest about being shut off from coal, but to date the city officials haven't done a thing towards securing a wood fuel supply. Some few individuals, thrifty and far-sighted ones, are getting wood for their own supply.

The city council meets tonight and should take some action to establish a municipal wood yard. Until that is done, the fuel orders of the State Fuel Administrator are but half obeyed.

END OF WAR IN 1919

The prediction of the BRAINERD DISPATCH given out some weeks ago that the war would end by the close of 1919 is further strengthened by the views of President Woodrow Wilson and Chief of Staff March. The latter wants the big army-draft program adopted soon so as to gain a large army and finish the job of Hohenzollern reduction quickly.

The idea of the war is to give the Germans no rest, to drive them back continuously and not allow them to bury in.

That the war will end in 1919 is the prevailing impression in France, says Bishop Francis of the Episcopal church of Indianapolis, who recently returned.

BRAINERD RIFLE CLUB

The Brainerd Rifle club, fostered by the government, is doing commendable work training its members in good target practice. Graduates of the club are now shooting the huns. Stay-at-homes may well profit by the practice. Men from 18 to 45 will certainly be called out in the draft and they should have rifle practice. The club is public spirited and the members show every newcomer the highest courtesy and cooperation.

FOOD RIOTS IN JAPAN

Nearly Every Important City Is Under Martial Law.

Property in Theater and Business Districts of Tokio Is Badly Damaged.

Tokio, Aug. 19.—Serious rioting has taken place in this city. Property in the theater and business districts was attacked and seriously damaged by mobs.

The rioters also entered and pillaged houses in Asakusa, the great recreation resort of the middle and lower classes. A number of the disturbers were wounded by the police.

Troops have been called out in nearly every important city in Japan, even the naval station at Maizuru is affected by the unrest. Two thousand workmen there are rioting in conjunction with the populace.

At Nagoya, noted for its manufactures of porcelain, a mob estimated to aggregate 30,000 persons, rioted. At several places the soldiers fired on the disturbers.

At Kobe the soldiers and police also were obliged to use sabers and bayonets against the rioters.

The food disturbers keep increasing in violence. At Osaka during a demonstration telephone wires were cut and several tramways were forced to suspend service after several passengers had been wounded. Troops, including cavalry, were called out to suppress the rioting and 25 policemen and many rioters were hurt. Five hundred persons were arrested. In outlying towns the people attacked the police with bamboo spears.

The disturbances at Kobe resulted in the burning of a great rice warehouse and several factories and houses and a large number of rice stores.

WARSHIPS MUST BE TAKEN FROM HUNS

ALLIED NATIONS DON'T INTEND TO LEAVE GERMANY MEANS OF MAKING ANOTHER WAR.

SUFFRAGISTS ARE HOPEFUL

Will Review Efforts to Pass Federal Amendment Soon After Senate Resumes Business—Rural Motortruck Service Reveals Much About Prices.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington.—We are looking ahead quite a long way when we talk about what shall be done with the German ships after the war. It is very doubtful whether the people of the United States would look with favor upon returning German ships which were confiscated and are now being used by this government. But it is the ships that are in the Kiel canal and in the German harbors that are of especial interest, particularly the fighting ships. It is not believed that Great Britain and France will ever consent to have those ships left in possession of Germany and thus become a nucleus of further submarine outrages when Germany gets ready for another war.

While it is looking a long way ahead, it seems to be the determination of all the nations which are now conducting the war against the "mad dog of Europe" to so end that war as to make it impossible for any set of men to precipitate upon the world any such catastrophe as that which began four years ago and is still wrecking the world. Germany must be stripped of her war power, and that will include all the ships that can be used for war purposes.

Suffragists will make another effort to pass the federal amendment soon after the senate resumes business.

The suffragists have been materially aided by changes in the senate and it is believed that several senators now serving under temporary appointments are likely to vote for suffrage, although the men whose places they fill were opposed to suffrage. Such is the impression in regard to Benet of South Carolina, Willifoy of Missouri and Gulon of Louisiana. The efforts which President Wilson is making to get Democratic senators to vote for the suffrage amendment are a powerful aid to the suffrage cause. It is rather hard for senators who are candidates for re-election, and who are conscientiously opposed to woman suffrage, to withstand the demand of the president that they vote for the suffrage amendment as a war measure.

Through the rural motortruck service instituted by the post office department a great deal of information has been obtained regarding produce, for these motortrucks handle a large amount of farm and garden products which are carried to the cities. The service now forms a chain from Portland, Me., to Washington, D. C., with branches in Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland and Virginia, and its success is likely to cause its extension into communities further west. Motortruck men have been gathering information on prices and it is found that in a radius of 100 miles the price of eggs varies from 35 to 65 cents per dozen; potatoes from $1.50 to $2.25 per bushel; young chickens from 30 to 75 cents a pound; butter from 36 to 52 cents a pound. There is a possibility that when the motortruck service is in full operation there will be an equalization of these prices which will be to the advantage of the farmer as well as the consumer.

Already it has come to the notice of officers of the treasury department that sharpers are trying to get the best of innocent people who are owners of Liberty bonds. They are trying to obtain them at a discount or to trade worthless properties for them. The treasury department feels called upon to warn everybody to beware of this class of swindlers and before disposing of a government bond to consult a banker or government official in regard to its value. But further than that, it is recommended that owners of government bonds make every effort to hold them, because in doing so they are helping finance the war.

It is evident from the discussions that have occurred in the senate that suggestions about peace do not please our public men. "Our duty is to talk war until there is not a German soldier in Belgium or France," was an announcement by Senator Sherman of Illinois in making a speech deprecating any consideration of peace overtures coming from Germany at the present time. There were nods of approval from quite a number of senators who were listening to him, and the galleries broke out into applause.

On the principle that "a singing nation cannot be defeated," the council of national defense is undertaking to organize "Liberty choruses" in every community in the country. These choruses will sing at all patriotic meetings, such as Liberty loan and Red Cross rallies, and in fact local gatherings of every kind. Under the urge and example of its Liberty choruses, the people of a community will be able to learn and sing the songs of America and of our allies as well.

WIFE SHOTS HER HUSBAND ON RANGE

Mrs. Hilda Hill of Manganese Uses 32 Revolver and Kills Spouse, Firing Through Screen Door

HAPPENED SUNDAY MORNING

She Claims He Threatened to Kill Her and She Fired Only in Self Defense

Hearing her husband, from whom she had been separated for a time, smash on the screen door of her home in Manganese about 1 o'clock Sunday morning and threatening to kill her, Mrs. Hilda Hill, age 28, claims she fired in self defense and the bullet of her 32 revolver went through the screen door and lodged in the stomach of Jack Hill, her husband.

The latter ran from the house and fell face down on a bank 200 feet from the house, dying there within a short time.

The woman calmly closed the doors, retired and in the morning got up at 6 o'clock and looked for her husband, finding him dead. She then took the revolver and walked to Deputy Sheriff August Lanz and gave herself up. Sheriff Claus A. Theorin arrived at Manganese shortly after and took her to the county jail at Brainerd.

A Dispatch representative interviewed her Sunday morning as she sat in the jail. She was calm and collected, but flushed slightly as she told the story which corresponded identically with the story of the happening as she had previously related it to deputy coroner, deputy sheriff and sheriff.

The couple has two children, Tonia age 5 and Martha age 7. There has frequently been trouble and arguments in the Hill home, and husband and wife have separated several times. He left her two weeks ago and had lived in Crosby with the oldest child.

He had often accused her of infidelity, which she resented and she claimed he was of a jealous nature.

Sunday night he got off the night shift, (he is a miner), and he drove a Ford car from the mine to his home in Manganese and left the car stand two blocks from the house, his idea evidently being to surprise his wife.

He crept to the house and knocked on the door and shouted:

"Open, or I'll kill you."

Mrs. Hill awoke, and fearing for her life, snatched her revolver and fired. The bed room adjoins the kitchen.

She said she was sorry the deed was committed. The revolver was bought by her last summer when they lived in Minneapolis.

Previously they had lived in Ironwood, Mich. A sister of Mrs. Hill, being Mrs. Paul Mattson, lives in Michigan. Her parents reside in Finland. Mr. and Mrs. Hill came from Michigan about five months ago.

Mr. Hill is not a citizen and has lived in America 14 years. He has a sister, Mrs. Hulda Koski, living in Michigan, who was in Ironton a year and a half ago.

Deputy Coroner Albert Humble of Crosby viewed the scene of the tragedy and heard the woman's story and decided that an inquest was unnecessary and that the man had come to his death at the hands of his wife.

The husband carried some industrial insurance in the Prudential.

It is expected she will be arraigned in Brainerd Monday afternoon. She appears without funds and the county, no doubt, will have to appoint an attorney for her.

SENATOR GALLINGER DIES

New Hampshire Solon, Ill for Months, Passes.

Franklin, N. H., Aug. 19.—United States Senator Jacob H. Gallinger of New Hampshire died at a hospital here. He was minority leader of the senate.

Senator Gallinger was born at Cornwall, Ont., March 28, 1837. He received a common school and academic education, and when a youth learned the printer's trade. He studied medicine and was graduated soon after attaining his majority.

Dr. Gallinger practiced his profession during his entire political career, which began in 1872, until 1884, when he was elected to congress. He was elected to the 49th and 50th congresses, and declined renomination to the 51st congress; was elected United States senator in 1890, and has been in the upper house continuously since that time.

SPEAKERS AT CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Rev. William E. Williams This Evening on Y. M. C. A. War Work at the Front in France

MEETING FREE TO THE PUBLIC

Wednesday Evening Short Business Session, Followed by Address of Dr. Fred C. Rodda

Two interesting meetings have been planned for the Chamber of Commerce this week. This evening at 8:30 o'clock Rev. William E. Williams, prominent in Y. M. C. A. work at the front in France will give first hand experiences in the war zone. Rev. Williams spent seven months at the front and the Chamber has been fortunate in securing him for an informal talk on the war and the part the Y. M. C. A. is taking in it. This lecture is free to the general public and all are invited to come out and hear him. The ladies are urged to be present as well as the men.

Milk Expert Here

On Wednesday evening, Dr. Fred C. Rodda, in charge of the baby ward at the state university, will talk on the subject of feeding infants, the pasteurization of milk and milk ordinances for cities. Dr. Rodda was engaged for this discussion by Dr. A. W. Ide, chairman of the special committee on milk ordinance, appointed by the Chamber some time ago.

The regular meeting of the Chamber comes on Wednesday evening and the business before it will be transacted prior to the discussion by Dr. Rodda. Members are urged to come out this evening and on Wednesday evening and hear these two important discussions.

As stated, the public is welcome and the ladies specially urged to be present at both meetings.

REFUGEE RELIEF AT SHORT NOTICE

By William D. Hines

Feeding and sheltering two thousand refugees was the task assigned to the Americans Red Cross at one particular point behind the battle-front during the recent German offensive. Only a few hours notice was given and only a few workers were available to accomplish it.

Of all the sights I saw in the evacuation of that area of five hundred square miles which was endangered by the Boche attack, this one will remain longest in my memory. Herded into the small railroad station, their clothing damp and mildewed from tramping through the pouring rain to the railroads further up the line, they presented one of the most pitiful spectacles of the war.

Some had slept in box cars the night before. Their clothing was wrinkled and torn. All they possessed in the world they carried with them. Babies—some barely six months old—were wrapped in old coats and pieces of their mother's clothing.

Some had only two hours notice to evacuate their homes. It was a study of psychology to view what many of them had selected from all their beloved possessions. An old woman, perhaps seventy, was carrying a fine linen tablecloth, wrapped about other fine table and bed linen, under one arm, and her granddaughter, age ten, under the other.

Another woman held a baby, a year old, in her arms and grouped about her were four other children. One boy had on two suits of clothes. He also carried a small basket with a piece of bread sticking out of the corner. Each child had a bundle, containing a few clothes. An old man bent and crippled with rheumatism leaned on his cane, and even he carried a pack on his back. Out of it protruded a big, heavy, old-fashioned clock. He went about ceaselessly among his fellow-refugees, a haunting, inquiring look on his face. Of every one he asked the same question. Had they seen his wife? Her name was Henrietta. She had become separated from him the night before when the refugee train left Amiens. Were they sure they hadn't seen her? All the rest of his life he would search for her. The loss of home, farm and whole life's work could be borne. "But the loss of one's mate for forty years. Ah, Monsieur! that is too much," he told me.

Over in one corner sat a couple, who had passed the four score mark in years. They squatted on their bundles huddled close together. They never spoke. Just stared straight ahead. It seemed that all the misery of ages had gathered in their eyes. There was the hopelessness of a person condemned to death, the horror and mercilessness of war and the realization that Christ must have carried in His eyes on the march to Calvary. All day this couple had sat in the station with the hundreds of other refugees. They had been fed by the

Do Something Better Than the Other Fellow--- and ADVERTISE

Advertising cannot accomplish the impossible any more than barren ground can yield rich crop.

But how advertising does make things hum when the product and proposition are right, the men and methods above board, when there's an honest purpose and earnest effort from bundle boy to general manager to serve efficiency, to deal honestly, to sell good goods, to price fairly.

Oil up the machinery of your business, imbue your organization with the spirit of true service, make your business worthy of the good will, the confidence, the patronage of the people.

In this fertile field then sow the seed of advertising and it will bring forth abundant crops in increased business and augmented prestige.

Your store news in the Dispatch will be read in practically every home in Brainerd and vicinity every evening.

Wonderful Cave Found.

A wonderful cave has been discovered at the lime quarries about 15 miles from Potlatch, near Cape Colony. A workman, using his pick, came to a large hole, and this proved to lead to a wonderful cave containing the most beautiful stalactites—a really wonderful sight. These "pendant" pieces of carbonate of lime, attached like icicles to the roof of the cave and formed by the dripping of the water charged with the carbonate from the rock above, are in various and in some cases most intricate designs, and should be of great interest to geologists. The cave is about 50 yards long and 30 wide, and no one ever dreamed of its existence.

Welcoming the Actor.

A well-known society performer volunteered to entertain a roomful of patients of a private asylum, and made up a very successful little monologue show, entirely humorous. The audience in the main gave symptoms of being slightly bored, but one highly intelligent maniac saw the whole thing in proper light and, clapping the talented actor on the shoulder, said: "Glad you've come, old fellow. You and I will get along fine. The other dummies here are so dashed dignified. What I say is if a man is mad he needn't put on airs about it!"—London Opinion.

Speed of Waterfowl Measured.

The speed of waterfowl has often been measured with great accuracy. Two men take positions on a duck pass a measured distance apart. The first man carries a stop-watch and a gun, and the second a gun only. As the fowls pass the first blind the timer shoots in order to frighten the birds into full speed, and starts his watch. As the ducks pass the second blind the man there fires a shot, and the timer stops his watch. The usual length of the course is a quarter of a mile, although a mile "track" is sometimes used.

Three German Papers Suspend.

Columbus, O., Aug. 19.—The German-American Publishing company, of Columbus, with publishes the Daily Express, Der Ohio Staats-Gast, a Sunday paper, and Der Westbote, a semi-weekly, all printed in the German language, announced that on Aug. 20 it will suspend the publication of the three newspapers because of patriotic reasons. Publication will not be resumed after the war, although all three papers have been paying dividends. It is said.

Serbians Great Walkers. All Serbian peasants are great walkers. A servant, given a short leave, will think nothing of footing it to his home, five and twenty miles off, and walking back after a short day spent with his family.

It is quite in the ordinary way of their business for both men and women to be two days on the road to market. Owing to their remarkable marching powers Serbian troops are mobilized and moved with surprising rapidity. In spite of the great lack of railway communication. And their they march light.

UNIVERSAL WAR BREAD

Food Controllers Agree on Program in London.

Herbert C. Hoover Asserts He Believes the Danger of Privation Has Been Passed.

London, Aug. 19.—Herbert C. Hoover, American Food administrator, announced that universal war bread of better quality than last year for all the nations fighting Germany, practically without rationing, will be one of the chief results of the food controllers' conference at London.

Mr. Hoover added that there would be ample supplies of fat and meats if the populations were economical and avoided waste.

"The danger of privation is now passed," he declared. He said the people of North America were now able to take overseas the great bulk of food supplies required and it will therefore be possible to curtail the total length of the voyage necessary to bring these supplies to the European Allies, thus affecting a considerable saving in tonnage.

Mr. Hoover said a program had been reached regarding the different commodities that are required not only to maintain the health, but the comfort of the armies and the civilian populations. He appealed to the United States for "continued rigid economy in consumption to meet the increased demands of Europe and to enable us to carry over from this year's harvest a stock of breadstuffs that will afford positive insurance against any climatic eventualities in the next harvest."

BILL TO CONTROL PACKERS

Senator Borah Is Preparing Federal Supervision Measure.

Washington, Aug. 19.—Government supervision of the packing industry along the lines recommended by the Federal Trade commission is sought in a bill that Senator Borah, Idaho, proposes to introduce shortly after the Senate reconvenes for regular business.

The Federal Trade commission, in its report, charged that the packers have made exorbitant profits. Borah believes that statement to be true, so far as he has been able to study the report. Should his bill become law, the "golden days" of the packers would soon be a thing of the past, he says.

LOSSES WORRY LUDENDORFF

Order Signed by German General Is Found by Allies.

With the French Army in France, Aug. 19.—An order signed "Ludendorff," recently captured on the battlefield, discloses the anxiety of the Germans over the heavy losses they sustained in June and July. The order, dated July 6, refers to "repeated attacks by the enemy during recent days," and says:

"Unfortunately, a great number of prisoners were lost in those affairs, which shows that our occupation of the first lines is still too dense in defense and the depth of the advanced zone is insufficient."

100,000 FROM TWIN CITIES

Estimated Registration Under Prospective Draft Law.

Minneapolis, Aug. 19.—St. Paul local draft board members estimated that between 35,000 and 40,000 men between the ages of 18 and 45 years will be required to register in St. Paul under the selective draft as soon as Congress passes necessary legislation. Maj. J. P. Snyder, chief state draft aide, has estimated that the registration will total between 55,000 and 60,000 in Minneapolis, giving the Twin Cities a maximum total registration under the new order of 100,000 prospective soldiers.

Washington, Aug. 19.—Street railway companies of the United States were instructed by the fuel administration to put into effect the "skip stop" system on all lines by the end of September. State fuel administrators have been ordered to obtain the installation of the system by Sept. 15, if possible. Two million tons of coal annually may be saved by the practice, the fuel administration estimates. About one-third of the traction systems of the country have adopted the new system.

FORCE ABROAD GROWS

American Army Overseas Now Numbers 1,450,000 Men.

Minnesota, Iowa and Illinois Troops, Comprising Eighty-eighth Division, Are on Their Way.

Washington, Aug. 19.—The American army now has more than 3,000,000 men under arms and has sent nearly one-half, or more than 1,450,000 abroad for service in France, Italy and Siberia.

These figures were revealed by General March, chief of staff, in his talks with newspaper men and members of the Senate military committee.

The senators were told that some transports are making the trips to Europe and back in 19 days and that the average has been reduced to 28 days, which, with additional shipping becoming available, makes the great job of getting the total of 80 divisions of American troops to France by June 30, 1919, certain of success. This would mean an army of 3,200,000 men overseas.

The chief of staff paid only brief attention to the progress of the fighting in France, where the situation is developing slowly. He did characterize the battle, however, as "the German retreat," and otherwise indicated that farther retirement was expected.

General March announced that the Eighty-eighth division, composed of Minnesota, Iowa and Illinois troops, trained at Camp Dodge, was in process of embarkation.

Senators also were informed that the Russian situation is serious because of the general complexity of affairs there.

Every Woman Who Saves Is a "Goddess of Liberty"

THIS advertisement is for the women of Minnesota—for mothers, wives and daughters who are ready to serve the nation. This appeal is intended to reach the women who do the daily buying for the households of Minnesota, and to bring home to them the National necessity of Thrift in war-time.

American soldiers must be supplied with clothing, food and equipment—more will be needed from month to month. Ships must be built in which to send these supplies—more ships will be needed from month to month. Men and materials must be had for producing supplies, for building ships, and this can be done only if the women of America really make Thrift their buy-word from day to day.

To spend on those things not necessary for simple living is to deprive the Government of the labor and materials that go into their making—labor and materials now urgently needed in winning the war.

Practice the good old-fashioned habit of Thrift in your everyday living; save and lend your savings to the Government by investing in

War Savings Stamps

When you regularly practice Thrift, when you invest your savings in W. S. S., you are not alone SAVING but you are also EARNING.

War Savings Stamps cost $4.16 in May, $4.17 during June, etc. On January 1st, 1923, each stamp will be worth $5.00. War Savings Stamps cannot decrease in value—and the Government will not permit any individual to own more than $1,000 worth of them.

It is the duty and privilege of all Americans to save and lend their savings to the Government. If you have not already done so; decide today that you will buy your first W. S. S.—and become a registered War Saver for the Government. Every American woman is now privileged to be a "Goddess of Liberty"—for the woman who saves will be doing her share toward winning the war and freeing the world from autocracy.

This good American mother has four sons serving in the U. S. Army. She knows the meaning of sacrifice, she knows that her sons and other mothers' sons must be protected. Her patriotism is both practical and complete. Out of the old stocking she takes her savings and puts them into War Savings Stamps. The savings she lends to her Government will help the nation to victory, will be safely earning liberal interest and will assure her own future till the boys come home.
